ARTICLE EIGHT

Every person or entity who is now or hereafter becomes an Owner shall automatically be and must remain a Member of the Association, and membership shall be appurtenant to and may not be separated from ownership of any Lot.

ARTICLE NINE

The Association may indemnify any person who is or was a director or officer of the Association and any person who serves or served at the Association's request as a director or officer as follows:

(a) In case of a suit by or in the right of the Association against a director or officer by reason of his holding such a position, the Association shall indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he is successful on the merits or otherwise, or if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such director or officer shall have been finally adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Association;

(b) In case of a threatened, pending or completed suit, action or proceeding (whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative), other than a suit by or in the right of the Association, together hereafter referred to as a non-derivative suit, against a director or officer by reason of his holding a position set forth above, the Association shall indemnify him against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, suit or proceeding if he is successful on the merits or otherwise or if he acted in good faith in the transaction which is the subject of the non-derivative suit to the best interests of the Association and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of a non-derivative suit by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the director or officer did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, that he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful;

(c) Indemnification provided under paragraphs (a) and (b) above shall be made by the Association [except as provided in paragraph (a) hereof] only upon a determination of the specific case that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in paragraph (b) hereof. Such determination shall be made: (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel and a written opinion, or (3) by vote of the Members. Indemnification may be prorated so as to indemnify such director or officer as to some matters but not to others;

(d) The Association may pay, in advance, any expenses (including attorneys' fees) which may become subject to indemnification hereunder if: (1) the Board of Directors authorizes the specific payment, and (2) the director or officer receiving the payment undertakes in writing to repay such payment unless it is ultimately determined that he is entitled to indemnification by the Association under this Article Nine;

(e) The indemnification provided for herein shall not be exclusive of any of the rights to which a person may be entitled by law, the Bylaws of the Association, agreement, vote of Members or disinterested directors, or otherwise, shall continue as to a director or officer, who has ceased to hold such position and shall inure to his heirs, executors and administrators;

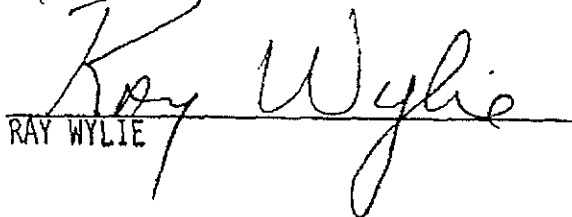

(f) The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who holds or who has held any position of director or officer against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such position, or arising out of his status as such; and

(g) The foregoing provisions shall be liberally construed so that, inter alia, the masculine gender includes the feminine and vice-versa.
